Prepared. For Life.™

Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills

A fun-filled program of hands-on skills training in the outdoors, designed to help you master basic camp skills required for Tenderfoot to First Class.

Instructions will help you learn how to set up camp, cook, work with woods tools and about ropes, first aid, planning campfire programs, map reading and compass skills, hiking and packing techniques, nature identification, and Leave No Trace.

Each outdoor session will bring to life the pages of the Boy Scout Handbook to help you deliver the promise of Scouting to you and the youth you serve. It will increase your comfort level and give you the confidence of a skilled, trained leader. The program will also give you the opportunity to work with other Scout leaders from your area, meet new friends, and reinforce skill techniques with fellow unit leaders.

This course is half of the Basic Leader Training series for Boy Scout Leaders. The other half, Scoutmaster and Assistant Scoutmaster Leader Specific Training, is being held this and again this fall. The courses can be taken in any order and both training sessions must be completed for you to be considered a “Trained” leader.

The journey from Leader Specific Training to Wood Badge is a seamless progression for adults and an unending benefit for BSA youth. — the first two steps in new-leader training—introduce new leaders to the Boy Scouting program. Leader Specific Training, as the name implies, focuses on specific leader roles and will require several days to complete, depending on an individual's previous outdoor skills experience. Wood Badge has evolved into the premier leadership course of the BSA, strengthening a leader's ability to effectively work with groups of youth and adults.

This emblem is available to all adult leaders who have completed Fast Start Orientation; “This is Scouting”, Leader Specific Training and Introduction to Outdoor Skills. It is worn on the left sleeve, below and touching the emblem of leadership for which it was earned.
